Pastor's Letter:

Jubilee of Mercy

The 9/11 Cross

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It's been 15 years since our nation was attacked by terrorists on September 11, 2001. I will never forget the day, as I was just beginning my final year before ordination to the priesthood at Mount Angel Seminary. I can recall the specific details about that day like no other day. It was my generation's Pearl Harbor. We know where we were and what we were doing when we heard the news, just like those who lived at the time of President Kennedy's assassination. The attacks have changed our nation forever; that day has changed and impacted our daily lives in countless ways as well.

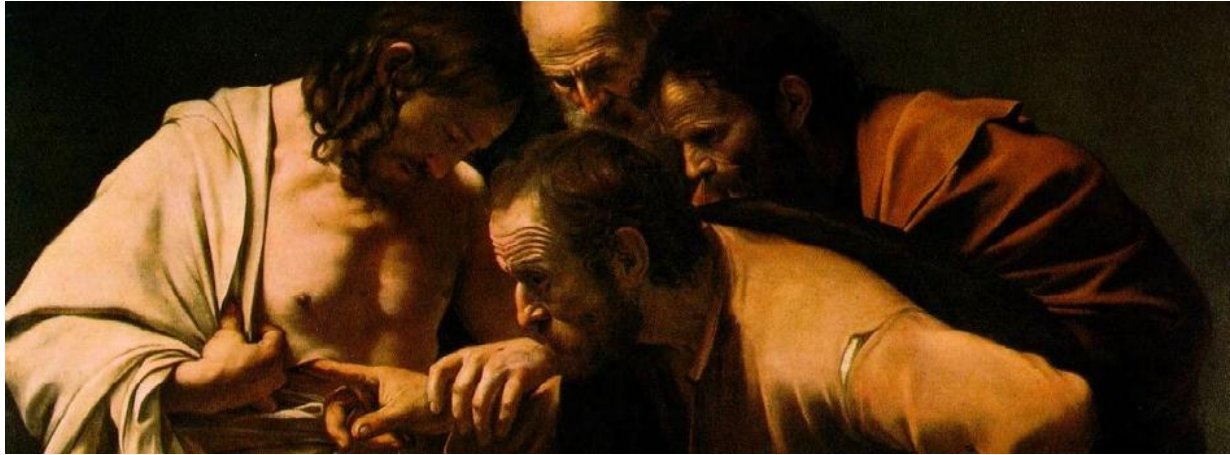

One thing I recall was the Liturgy of the Hours for Evening prayer that day. The psalms spoke of our help coming from God and of His sure protection in times of trial and crisis. We all took note of how appropriate the liturgy of that particular day was. God's suffering was present in the suffering of that day. The 9-11 cross, comprised of two cross beams of steel from one of the World Trade Center buildings was a symbol of hope amid the wreckage. Today, the cross utters the same message. Wherever trial and tragedy exists, Jesus and His cross are present as a constant reminder that suffering and death always gives way to resurrection and new life.

As we contemplate this anniversary once again, may we never lose sight of this important truth of our faith: Jesus never leaves our side; He is ever present. Pray also for our nation. Pray that we will never forget who we are as Americans and who our ultimate hope and trust is in: Jesus our Lord!

Fr. David Mulholland
