SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

St. John the Baptist by El Greco

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea, and saying, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!’” The best way to prepare for the coming of the Lord in Advent is to take the initiative and clean the house of our souls; to repent and seek the mercy of God in confession. This coming week, in addition to our normal hours for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Fr. List and I will be available for confessions before and after Sr. Miriam’s mission talks on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. I encourage you to take this opportunity to go to confession this Advent, so that you may receive the joy of Christ’s coming at Christmas, fully prepared and ready. For the Lord truly desires to fill you with the gift of His love and mercy!

God bless,

Fr David Mulholland

PRAYER TO THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

O God, who by the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, did prepare a worthy dwelling place for Your Son, we beseech You that, as by the foreseen death of this, Your Son, You did preserve Her from all stain, so too You would permit us, purified through Her intercession, to come unto You. Through the same Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, world without end. Amen.

To prepare for the meeting, a preparatory document has been compiled to lay the foundation, along with a series of questions that will provide a basis for background information the bishops will need to have a good and fruitful meeting. If you would like to participate in this process and answer some or all of the questions, please go to the following link and follow the instructions provided: <http://www.seattlearchdiocese.org/Archdiocese/Action.aspx>

This is a wonderful opportunity for all of us to provide information on a most important topic; the wellbeing of our families! Thanks very much for your assistance.

Matthew, the King and his Kingdom

St. Mark Bible Study

» Beginning January 2, 2014 «

The time of Christ is a period of history unlike any other that humanity has experienced. For thirty-three years the Creator of the Universe lived among men. He was born, suffered, and died, all for the sake of our salvation. He established a New Law of mercy and love, founded a visible Church, and instituted the sacraments to confer upon us the grace of salvation. And all of these extraordinary events have been recorded for us in the Gospels.

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is a Catholic Bible study that presents the Gospel account in a way that brings the history of Christ to life. Witness for yourself how Jesus fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament. Experience how Christ demonstrates His authority and Divinity through his miraculous ministry. And recognize the power and importance of The Church, the Mass, and the Sacraments established by Christ.

Join us for Matthew: The King and His Kingdom at St. Mark Catholic Church in Shoreline, beginning Thursday, January 2, 2014 from 7-9 pm in Sullivan Hall, and continuing every Thursday through June 12, 2014. For more information contact the class leader: Claude Golden (claudio.golden@gmail.com), 425-269-4682.

The class will consist of viewing a DVD of the weekly lesson taught by Dr. Jeff Cavins, director of the Great Adventure bible study program, and then small group discussion of the weekly readings, based on the class notebook.

To order the class notebook, go to the website below and order the "Matthew, the King and His Kingdom" Study Set for $29.95. Please order in time to have the notebook prior to the first meeting on Jan. 2.

There is still room for your name here. It helps in the parish financial planning if we have an idea of how much parishioners plan on giving. This is not a contract—just an estimate of what you think you will give in 2014.
