Pastor's Letter:

Divine Mercy Sunday

St. John XXIII - "The Good"

St. John Paul II - "The Great"

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, we contemplate the gift of a Father's love, through His Son Jesus, in showering down from Heaven the grace of mercy....forgiveness for sin and transformation of life, both now and to come. There is no day like today, where two popes are raised to the dignity of the altars as saints. Here are two quotes from Pope John, "the Good" and Pope John Paul, "the Great" to inspire us on this day, their day, but mostly "our day" given to us out of pure love by our Heavenly Father:

"Consult not your fears but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you tried and failed in, but with what it is still possible for you to do." - St. John XXIII

"Do not be afraid.....It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your heart your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle. It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your life, the will to follow an ideal, and the courage to commit yourself humbly and patiently to improving yourself."

- St. John Paul II

Praised be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

Fr David Mulholland

WE HAVE A SISTER PARISH IN JAMAICA,

BROTHERS AND SISTERS AT ST. MARK,
A Holy and Blessed Easter to you all. The children at the Homework Center just had their Easter treat of bun and cheese and fruit punch drink. They are very happy for the treat and asked me to say many thanks to you all.

We have a priest until August. His name is Fr. Howard James. He was born in England of Jamaican parents. He is very good with the youth and enjoys visiting the sick who are very happy to have him visit. Our attendance at church has improved since he is here and we hope that will continue.

God bless you all,
Pauline Ritchie

“We are slow to master the great truth that even now Christ is, as it were, walking among us, and by His hand, or eye, or voice, bidding us to follow Him. We do not understand that His call is a thing that takes place now. We think it took place in the Apostles' days, but we do not believe in it; we do not look for it in our own case.

God's presence is not discerned at the time when it is upon us, but afterwards, when we look back upon what is gone and over. The world seems to go on as usual. There is nothing of heaven in the face of society, in the news of the day.

Let us feel what we really are--sinners attempting great things. Let us simply obey God's will, whatever may come. He can turn all things to our eternal good. Easter day is preceded by the forty days of Lent, to show us that they only who sow in tears shall reap in joy.

Contemplate then yourself, not as yourself, but as you are in the Eternal God. Fall down in astonishment at the glories which are around you and in you, poured to and fro in such a wonderful way that you are dissolved into the Kingdom of God.”

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27, 2014

The Holy See has granted a plenary indulgence to all the faithful who devoutly commemorate the mysteries of Divine pardon. Our Lord said: "I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those who approach the fount of My Mercy."

How to devoutly observe this Feast:

- Trust in Jesus, go to Sacramental Confession (within 20 days, before or after the Feast)
- Receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday
- Venerate the Divine Image and pray "The Chaplet" at the 3 o'clock hour before the Blessed Sacrament (if possible)
- Pray for the intentions of the Holy Father and show mercy to others.

How to recite, "The Chaplet" (on Rosary beads)

- Say: one Our Father, one Hail Mary, one Apostles Creed
- On the Our Father beads say: "Eternal Father, I offer You the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."
- On the Hail Mary beads say: "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."
- In Conclusion say: "Jesus, I trust in You!" (then) "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world." (3 times)

If you pray "The Chaplet" as a novena, include our Lord's intention for that day. Day (1) For all mankind, especially for all sinners; (2) The souls of priests and religious; (3) All devout and faithful souls; (4) Those who don't believe in Jesus and those who don't yet know Him; (5) The souls of separated brethren; (6) The meek and humble souls and the souls of children; (7) The souls who especially venerate and glorify Jesus' mercy; (8) The souls who are detained in Purgatory; (9) The souls who have become lukewarm.
