Pastor's Letter:

Saint Theresia

Saint John Vianney

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This coming week I will be the chaplain for a summer priest retreat at the Archbishop Brunett Retreat Center at the Palisades. There will be 38 priests attending this retreat, 26 from the Seattle Archdiocese; the rest from around the country. Our retreat director is Dr. Bob Schuchts from the John Paul II Healing Center, who came to Saint Mark last summer for the Healing the Whole Person retreat. The priest retreat is called Holy Desire, the Path to Freedom and it promises to be a grace-filled time.

I have a special request of you. I ask that you pray for us priests in the coming week; that all these men may open their hearts to the Holy Spirit during the course of our retreat. I especially ask that you pray through the intercession of Saint Theresia, who has a special mission to intercede on behalf of priests, and through the intercession of Saint John Vianney, the patron saint of parish priests. Their portraits above show an intensity of their demeanor, but at the same time we can also see the calm assurance that God gave to them. They had hearts that were open and docile toward God; may ours be as well. They are also powerful intercessors before God. Please invoke them for me and for my brother priests in the week ahead. We all have at the core of our being the holy desire to serve Christ and His flock (that's you!). May God reveal to us His holy desire for each of His priests in their lives and ministry. Blessings to you in the week ahead!

Fr David Mulholland

"May He support us all the day long, till the shades lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in His mercy may He give us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last."

J. H. Cardinal Newman

Parish Mission Statement

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." - Matthew 28:19-20

Parish Vision Statement

"They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles...they ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved." - Acts 2:42

As a parish, we will fulfill the Mission and live the Vision by...

- Becoming a worshipping people... who give praise and glory to God by keeping the Lord's day Holy, by celebrating Holy Mass on Sunday, and by encountering the Lord Jesus in the sacramental life and daily prayer.
- Becoming a missionary people... who live our Catholic faith on a daily basis in witness of the Lord Jesus to the world; to our family, our neighbors, our friends, and our co-workers. In this way Jesus is known by the fruit of our lives and in our love for others; this is at the heart of evangelization and catechesis.
- Becoming a merciful people... who put our faith into action by practicing the spiritual and corporal works of mercy:

The Spiritual Works of Mercy: instructing, advising, consoling, and comforting

The Corporal Works of Mercy: feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead

Something to Ponder

“God prepared my heart to respond that way,” says U.S. runner who helped rival

Abbey D'Agostino credits her faith as the driving force behind her athletic career

By Philip Kosloski

After colliding into a fellow runner during a 5,000-meter qualifying heat on Tuesday, United States runner Abbey D'Agostino could have kept on running. Her coach even told her before the race, “If you go down...get up, dust [yourself] off, have a quick look around and then get right back to running.” Instead she turned around and helped New Zealander Nikki Hamblin stand up and encouraged her to finish the race, saying, “Get up. We have to finish this.”

Before that moment Hamblin had never met D'Agostino and was shocked by the selfless concern she had in the middle of an Olympic race. Hamblin said later about the encounter, “That girl is the Olympic spirit right there... I've never met her before. Like I never met this girl before. And isn't that just so amazing. Such an amazing woman.”

Hamblin and D'Agostino continued to race together side-by-side, as it turned out D'Agostino was more severely injured than Hamblin and was struggling to finish the race. Hamblin wanted to return the favor and offered encouragement to the grimacing D'Agostino.

Despite running in absolute pain, D'Agostino finished the race behind Hamblin and was taken away in a wheelchair. Both runners were advanced to the final, but after an MRI on Wednesday D'Agostino discovered she had completely torn her ACL and will not be able to run for quite some time.

The awe-inspiring event is being described as the definition of “true Olympic spirit” and a wonderful example of “sportsmanship,” but really it is better described as an expression of D'Agostino's deep and abiding Christian faith.

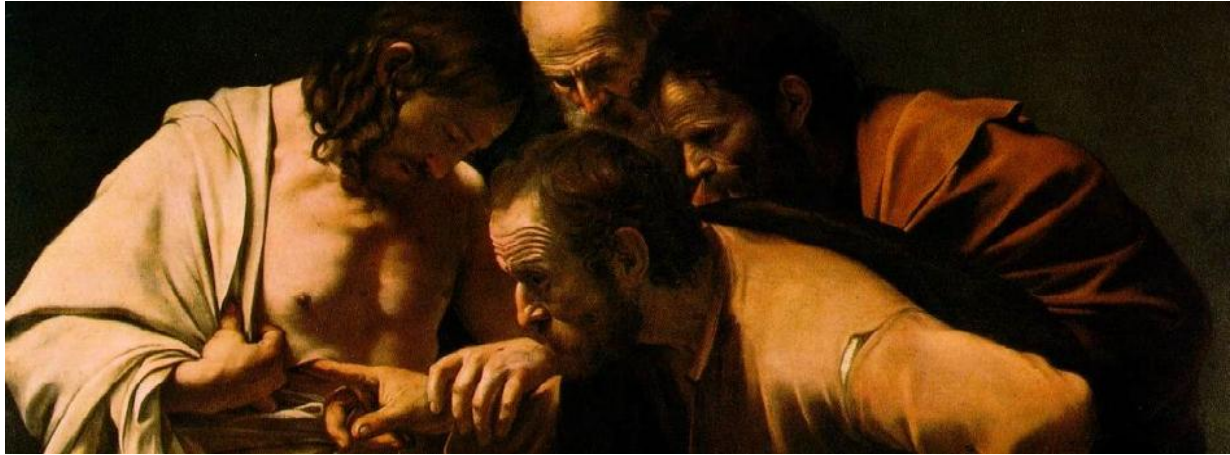

She said in a statement to the media, “Although my actions were instinctual at that moment, the only way I can and have rationalized it is that God prepared my heart to respond that way... This whole time here he's made clear to me that my experience in Rio was going to be about more than my race performance – and as soon as Nikki got up I knew that was it.”

D'Agostino has always been outspoken about her faith in God, sharing it frequently on social media. She credits her faith in being a driving force behind her athletic career, explaining its role in an interview with Julia Hanlon.

“I felt the peace that comes with acknowledging that I'm not going to run this race with my own strength. And I think that acknowledging those fears before God is what allowed me to feel that peace and I was drawn to it and I wanted to know a God who would work that way in my life.”

MISSIONER VISIT

Fr. Thomas Marti, M.M

Maryknoll Missioner Father Tom Marti, a native of Seattle, will speak at Masses this weekend. Father Tom graduated from O'Dea High School, Class of '55. He entered Maryknoll in 1955, and was ordained on June 12, 1965. He was then missioned to the Philippines, where he worked in rural parishes for 11 years. From 1976 until 1982, he was appointed as Director of the Maryknoll Justice and Peace Office in New York. Following this assignment, Fr. Tom returned to the Philippines for another five years. From 1989 to 1992 he served as the Executive Secretary of the Justice & Peace Commission of the Unions of Superiors General in Rome, Italy. From 1992 until 1998, he served as Director of the Maryknoll Mission Promotion House in Seattle. In 1998 he returned to Maryknoll Headquarters in New York where he served as both the Vocations Director and the Coordinator of the Maryknoll Priest/Brother Associates. He is currently living in Seattle where he serves both Maryknoll and the Seattle Archdiocese.

In 1911, the U.S. bishops established Maryknoll to be the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America. Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers is a community of priests and brothers who make a lifetime commitment to continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in today's world. The Maryknoll Society is made up of ordinary men sent to people of different histories, traditions and cultures to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with all God's children. Maryknoll depends solely upon the American Catholic Church for support. All gifts received are used for mission work, mission education, recruitment, training and for the care of ill and retired missionaries.

While at the parish, Fr. Tom will be happy to talk with any person who is interested in learning more about mission life or perhaps becoming an overseas missionary.
