Pastor's Letter:

Jubilee of Mercy

Check out the new Parish Library in Sullivan Hall

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

You have heard me say many times that we live in an age where we have never had more information available to us, but we have also never been more ignorant and misinformed! What an irony! The amount of information that is just a “click” away on the computer is vast, but we often don’t take the time to let things sink in. A book, I think, is one of the best ways that helps us to slow down a bit so as to allow us to ponder and reflect about the topic at hand.

Pondering and reflecting is a lost art. In terms of our Catholic faith, I hope that the new Parish Library on the west wall of Sullivan Hall will be an aid to help you read, reflect and ponder on a topic of faith or the life of a saint, by using a real, actual book! The working of the library is simple: Simply take a book off the shelf and read it.....then return it to the top shelf in a reasonable amount of time. We are working on the honor system here, so take, read and enjoy!

Blessings to you all in the coming week!

Fr. David Mulholland

A TIME TO MOURN...

“May He support us all the day long, till the shades lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in His mercy may He give us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last.”

J. H. Cardinal Newman

Parish Mission Statement

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” - Matthew 28:19-20

Parish Vision Statement

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles...they ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.”

- Acts 2:42

As a parish, we will fulfill the Mission and live the Vision by...

- Becoming a worshiping people... who give praise and glory to God by keeping the Lord's day Holy, by celebrating Holy Mass on Sunday, and by encountering the Lord Jesus in the sacramental life and daily prayer.
- Becoming a missionary people... who live our Catholic faith on a daily basis in witness of the Lord Jesus to the world; to our family, our neighbors, our friends, and our co-workers. In this way Jesus is known by the fruit of our lives and in our love for others; this is at the heart of evangelization and catechesis.
- Becoming a merciful people... who put our faith into action by practicing the spiritual and corporal works of mercy:

The Spiritual Works of Mercy: instructing, advising, consoling, and comforting

The Corporal Works of Mercy: feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead

October is National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Month

The death of a child at any age and from any cause is tragic and overwhelming. It challenges families' sense of security and causes stressors in even the most stable households.

Our parish holds those that have experienced this type of loss in our deepest prayers and intentions this month and always.

ST. GIANNA MOLLA WOMEN'S GROUP

Please join the St. Gianna Women's Group of St. Mark at the Parish Center. We meet every Wednesday evening at 7:00 pm to learn and grow in our faith. Right now, we are reading The Joy of the Gospel, an Apostolic Exhortation by Pope Francis. The book can be purchased or the document can be found at the Vatican website. Come to learn, socialize, and have fun.

Box of Joy

The Second grade Faith Formation and school classes would like to invite all parishioners to join us in creating Boxes of Joy. Boxes of Joy are shoe size boxes that are filled with school supplies, hygiene items, clothes and of course toys. The boxes will then be sent to Cross Catholic Outreach, who will then send the boxes to Guatemala, Haiti, and Dominic Republic. The boxes are delivered to children who have never received a present before.

You can join us by filling a box as an individual or family. Boxes will be available in Sullivan Hall or you can bring items to place in the large Box of Joy in Sullivan Hall. Then on November 5 at 1:00pm, you can bring in your filled box or come help us fill all the boxes with the donated items. We will also need $9.00 for each box to cover shipping it to the countries.

A list of suggested items can be found at http://www.crosscatholic.org/uploads/BOJ_2016_Item_List.pdf. If you have any questions please call Rita Heid at 425-778-2418 or email at ritalheid@gmail.com
