PASTOR'S LETTER:

Saint Peter and Saint John Running to the Empty Tomb of Jesus

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The person of Saint Peter once again comes to the forefront of our Sunday Gospel. This is one of my favorite paintings of Saint Peter. It depicts him running alongside of Saint John to the empty tomb after hearing from the women that the Lord Jesus had indeed risen from the dead. I believe the picture shows yet another flaw of the first of the apostles. The narrative suggests a competition between the two as they run to the tomb. You almost ask who will be first? I feel the position of the finger on Peter's left hand reveals his thoughts on the matter....that he will be there "first" of course!

Saint Peter is a complicated figure and so rightly represents the entirety of the body of Christ, the Church. In today's gospel, he boldly proclaims that Jesus is "the Christ, the Son of the living God." This confession of faith comes from his heart and Jesus says that it is the direct revelation of the Father. As with Peter, the Father is the source of our faith as well. Jesus then entrusts the keys of the kingdom of heaven to Peter. We likewise are entrusted with the light of faith, to be kept burning brightly until we reach the fullness of the kingdom when we enter into eternal life. Like Peter and the institutional Church, we are not perfect. As the apostles, their successors (bishops, priests, and deacons), we all of us stumble and fall prone to sin and the deceptions of the enemy of our human nature. Yet, we get up and go forward. When we are inspired by our faith, we even run alongside Saint Peter and Saint John to see the risen Lord; our hope for all things....the Christ, the Son of the Living God!

Saint Peter is not perfect and thank God for that! Peter, in his boldness, his faithfulness, but also in his doubt and denial, gives us all hope that God is patient with us and willing to constantly extend his boundless love and mercy our way.

Blessings to you all in the week ahead!

Fr David Mulholland

“May He support us all the day long, till the shades lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in His mercy may He give us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last.”

-J. H. Cardinal Newman

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”
- Matthew 28:19-20

PARISH VISION STATEMENT

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles...they ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.”
- Acts 2:42

AS A PARISH, WE WILL FULFILL THE MISSION AND LIVE THE VISION BY...

- Becoming a worshipping people...
who give praise and glory to God by keeping the Lord's day Holy, by celebrating Holy Mass on Sunday, and by encountering the Lord Jesus in the sacramental life and daily prayer.
- Becoming a missionary people...
who live our Catholic faith on a daily basis in witness of the Lord Jesus to the world; to our family, our neighbors, our friends, and our co-workers. In this way Jesus is known by the fruit of our lives and in our love for others; this is at the heart of evangelization and catechesis.
- Becoming a merciful people...
who put our faith into action by practicing the spiritual and corporal works of mercy:

The Spiritual Works of Mercy:

instructing, advising, consoling, and comforting

The Corporal Works of Mercy:

feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Tuesday morning Bible study will resume on Tuesday, September 19th at 8:45 am in Sullivan Hall. Each class will last about 2 hours. This year we will be studying the Gospel of Matthew utilizing Jeff Cavin's program Matthew: The King and His Kingdom which is available at Ascension Press for $28.95. The book of Matthew stands at the beginning of the New Testament as a bridge between the Old and the New. It gives us the key to understanding the rest of the New Testament by explaining further what God's plan was and how it is finally coming to pass. If we read the gospel carefully, we will see that Jesus is raising us to a new level of holiness and empowering us to live it.
