PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Dear friends,

With the celebration of Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, we enter into Holy Week. Unlike last year, we anticipate celebrating together in the various prayers and liturgies surrounding the sacred Triduum. And this year we are adding new opportunities to gather:

- the traditional 'Service of Shadows' or Tenebrae prayers on Wednesday
- Morning Prayer on the mornings of the Triduum (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday)
- the Tre Ore (three hours) service of confessions, prayers and homilies around the seven last words of Christ on Good Friday.

And all of this in addition to Holy Thursday Mass of the Last Supper, Good Friday service of the Passion of the Lord, the Easter Vigil service on Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday Masses! Please take some time to look over the schedule for Holy Week in the bulletin. Although the dispensation from the normal obligation to attend Masses on Sundays & Holy Days is still in effect, these celebrations are central to our faith - if you can safely attend, I hope you'll join in these sacred moments.

In the meantime, I'd like to share some reflections I've had over the last several weeks. It was just over two weeks ago that we hit the one-year mark (March 12, 2020) of COVID-19 restrictions taking effect at our parish. It was on that day that Archbishop Etienne became the first bishop in the United States to begin what would become a national and then global effort to slow the spread through voluntary parish closures.

The very next day the staff and I created a modified schedule of Stations of the Cross, confessions, and adoration - I was so proud of their quick response to the new circumstances and their coming together to create opportunities even with the new limitations!and then, less than 24 hours after we sent out that schedule and invitation, we got word of an on-site case of COVID-19. While the affected parishioners recovered with minimal effect (praise God!), we had to completely shut down our parish and school facilities.

I was crushed. We were all crushed. And then, we rallied. Despite the newness of it all, folks flocked to the online Masses - offering prayers and words of support to each other even as Mass was being celebrated. Parishioners called our offices and sent letters of encouragement & support. Folks expressed their support and gratitude for the ongoing efforts, particularly of the parish and school staff, who continued to work in a combination of in-office and remote work.

It hasn't all been easy or pleasant - many have felt the deep cuts of loneliness, frustration, and anger. In a strange but God-guided way, this proved to be a blessing. For myself, I found that the last year has forced me to confront some of my own insecurities, frustrations, and anxieties in a blunt and direct way that I would have been otherwise unwilling to undertake. Though these moments have sometimes been punctuated by fierce emotions, they have often resulted in greater understanding and friendship among those with whom they have been shared.

Which brings us to Holy Week 2021. By the grace of God and the work of so many, we find ourselves able to gather for prayer and worship once more. As we respond to this invitation, our first prayers are for those who have suffered over this last year - particularly those who have died, and those who mourn their passing. The passion of the Lord takes on a new depth in light of all of those who have shared in His death over this year, even as we proclaim His resurrection.

We should be mindful, too, of our own need for healing and wholeness. Even as we see the dawn of new hope in our parish celebrations and the world, there continues to be brokenness all around us. We each carry those wounds in our own lives, albeit in our own ways. Especially if we have found ourselves weakened over the last year, this is a time to be aware of our need for Jesus. These days may find us not less but more tempted to bitterness, resentment, and despair - not because we are failing in our faith but because we are drawing closer. As we approach the Lord, these struggles become part of our offering to Him and His healing for us.

As I imagine is the case for us all, I am excited for Holy Week, Easter, and the Easter season. There is a renewed hope springing up around us and we have this familiar but new opportunity to celebrate the One who is at the center of it all. While not all will be able to yet join us, I am looking forward to the celebration of these mysteries together with you. Be assured of my daily prayers for you all, particularly through the intercession of Mary. Let us pray for each other, that these last days of Lent and the coming Easter celebrations may continue to heal and strengthen us as beloved sons and daughters of God.

yours in Christ,
Father Maurer

No Easter Egg Hunt This Year

The Knights of Columbus will not hold an Easter Egg Hunt this year. This was a difficult decision but a necessary one to keep our Knights and the families of the parish safe. Meanwhile, likely a surprise to no one, the Knights continue to do their quiet good works around our parish and school.

Thank you Knights of Columbus for all you do

Holy Week

The holiest days of the liturgical year begin this week.

Wednesday of Holy Week, March 31:

Tenebrae

We will celebrate Tenebrae at 7:00 pm on Wednesday. While most of the ceremonies of the Church are joyous and celebratory, Tenebrae stands in stark contrast; it is sorrowful from beginning to end. Darkness plays a role both figuratively and literally. Traditionally the only light came from the Tenebrae hearse, or large candle holder. The three days leading up to Easter are known as the Sacred Triduum. During these three days we commemorate the passion, death and the resurrection of the Lord.

Thursday of Holy Week, April 1:

The Mass of the Lord's Supper

Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, at 6:30 pm. Few days are more beautiful or more filled with meaning than the Thursday of Holy Week. The Last Supper celebrates when Jesus instituted the Eucharist, instituted the priesthood, washed the feet of the apostles and gave a new commandment; for all of us to love one another.

Good Friday, April 2:

Tre Ore

We will celebrate Tre Ore on Good Friday, beginning at 12 noon and concluding at 3:00 pm. Tre Ore is Italian for three hours and is a liturgical service held on Good Friday referring to the three hours that Christ was on the Cross. Traditionally there are a series of homilies on the seven last words spoken by Christ.

Stations of the Cross

It is said that Mary retraced the steps of her Son's Passion and the significant events that happened along the way beginning when she lived in Jerusalem but continuing throughout her life. At 3:00 pm on Friday we need go no further than our own church to do the same.

Good Friday Liturgy concludes Good Friday observances at 6:30 pm in the church.

Holy Saturday, April 3:

Holy Saturday is a vigil at 8:30 pm; we keep watch for the rising of Jesus and joyfully receive those into the Church who have spent months in preparation.

Easter Sunday, April 4:

Our joyous celebrations will be at 8:30 am and at 10:30 am in the Church.

So far 152 donors have pledged $89,838 which is almost 60% of our goal. Thank you! Our donations are tax deductible. Send a check made payable to St. Mark Catholic Classical School to either the school or the parish office or donate online directly at <https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/149/DirectDonate/2105>.

Sacred Heart Radio, 100.3 FM and 1050 AM, is listener supported Catholic radio. You have likely listened to the Mass at 9:00 am on weekdays, but have you explored any of the other programs? Miracle Hunter is Saturday at 4:00 pm and delves into the fascinating world of miracles as it takes listeners on a hunt that explores some of the greatest mysteries and marvels of the Catholic Church.

Child Abuse Prevention Month

April is coming this week and along with it the 39th annual National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Throughout the Gospel Christ calls upon His followers to care for the most vulnerable among us, especially the children. Our faith calls for us to uphold the value of human life and the dignity of the human person. The protection of children is the responsibility of the entire Church.

Recent statistics tell us one out of every four girls and one out of every six boys are sexually abused before they turn 18.

Reaching out to all victims and survivors of abuse is critical in bringing hope, healing and the love of Christ.

We all can play a role in victim outreach by believing a victim or survivor who trusts us with their story, offering support, compassion and prayers to those who have been abused and helping them to connect with resources.

Help discerning what constitutes abuse can be found at: <https://www.seattlechildrens.org/about/community-benefit/child-abuse-neglect/>
