Queen of Heaven Guild meeting

Our November 2nd meeting at 11:30 am in Sullivan Hall coincides with All Souls' Day.

Bring your prayer requests, and share our recitation of the Rosary, followed by a brown bag lunch and our meeting. We welcome visitors.

Call Sylvia for more info (206) 419-3115.

Ministry Sunday

The sixth and seventh graders are present at the 10:30 am Mass today. They will be volunteering in several roles throughout the Mass.

Christmas Baskets are back!

St. Vincent de Paul is organizing Christmas baskets for our neighbors in Shoreline. We will be bringing back the opportunity for parishioners to sponsor families' Christmas dinners with donations of ham or turkey and all the fixings for a great holiday meal.

Be thinking about your willingness to share with our neighbors in need and hit those grocery sales over the next few weeks!

Sign ups for sponsoring families will happen on the last two Sundays of November. Christmas baskets will be delivered on December 17. (We will not be delivering presents as part of this event.)

If you are interested in helping on the day of delivery, send an email to Tom Martin at tmartin457@aol.com.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

Cf. Ps 105 (104): 3-4

Last week's Sunday Gospel ended with a stark question from the Lord “But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?” Today's Gospel picks up where we left off, with Jesus offering an unexpected example of faith - the repentance of a tax collector.

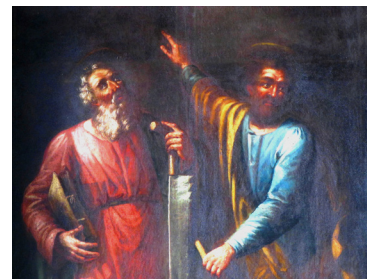

Contrasted with him is the false humility offered by the Pharisee who is only willing to compare himself to others. And although he speaks only the truth - he's not like the tax collector - the difference has nothing to do with his success with the precepts of the law.

The difference between them is that the tax collector is compares himself to God - and so sees how he has sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. That recognition elicits the humility and faith that the tax collector lacks.

Putting our faith in God requires that we give ourselves to Him - even the parts of which we're not proud, that cause us shame. “I confess to almighty God, and to you brothers and sisters...” - we say these words at every Mass. The key to faith is to be able to follow it up: what do I need to confess - and have I confessed those things honestly & completely? As the tax collector did, so may we do also.

October 28 is the feast of Saints Simon and Jude. Sadly, record of their lives is mostly lost to history. From scriptures, we know that Simon was a Zealot (a Jewish movement opposed to the Roman government) and Jude is probably most famous for his question to Jesus at the Last Supper: “Master, [then] what happened that you will reveal yourself to us and not to the world?” (John 14:22) and his letter to the Churches of the East (the penultimate book of the Bible).

Saints Simon and Jude, pray for us!

What is the 40 Hours Devotion? Unlike perpetual adoration, which isn't always feasible, this 16th century devotion is adoration split across multiple days such that it adds up to forty hours. You can read more about this devotion online.

What might this look like at Saint Mark parish - how might we make Eucharistic adoration once again a part of our practice of the faith?
