WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth;
by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

Cf. Ps 33 (32): 5-6

Today is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations - a day specially oriented towards encouraging vocations to the ordained priesthood and religious life. How we need men & women from all walks of life to listen for and respond to God's call to service!

In today's Gospel, Jesus emphasizes a aspect of a shepherd: that the sheep recognize His voice. The good shepherd is not simply the one appointed by the owner, but one with whom the sheep have a familiarity & trust.

Strayed Sheep, William Holman Hunt

Morover, it is the one who comes through the gate - through Christ! - that is the good shepherd.

Though imperfect in our efforts, we all work to enter through Christ into the life of faith. In prayer & worship each Sunday, carrying out good work at home & in our community, committing ourselves to study & prayer with our families and private devotions. We know how to enter through Christ, the gate!

What we need, perhaps more acutely in this generation than those prior, are members of our community, from our own family, to accept the mantle of shepherd. May we take time today - and in our daily prayers - to pray for men & women of Saint Mark parish to hear and respond to God's call to service!

This week, you are invited join in the litany for vocations, available to view and/or print at our parish website.

This litany, provided by the Archdiocese of Seattle vocation office, is one of many ways we may intercede for our future priests and religious. Consider also having Masses said for vocations - call the parish office for details on how to schedule one or more Mass intentions.

KNEELING ALONE BEFORE THE ALTAR, Father Isaac Jogues experienced an overwhelming desire to suffer for God, offering himself — body, mind, and soul — as a clean oblation for the sins of men. He heard a voice within him saying over and over, "The prayer is heard. He is done to those as thou hast asked: He comforted, he of strong heart." Jogues had no doubt that God had spoken to him. "These words," he wrote, "had issued from the lips of Him with whom saying and doing are only one and the same thing."

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL

Since its public launch in January, we have been praying for Archbishop Etienne's pastoral initiative Partners in the Gospel.

This week the priests of the archdiocese will be gathering with Archbishop Etienne as he and they discern the next steps in the forming of parish families. In your kindness, please say a special prayer for all those who will be gathering for this important next step in the process of discernment.
