Registration is open for the 2024-2025 school year.

Please visit the website, www.stmss.org, to inquire about St. Mark Catholic Classical School. All new families need to meet the principal and tour the school.

Come see the impact of a Catholic Classical education here at our school.

St. Mark Catholic Classical School is looking for an Extended Care Director/Preschool Teacher, Part-time Music teacher K – 8, and a Seventh/Eighth Grade teacher for the 2024-2025 school year.

At St. Mark Catholic Classical School, our educational approach is centered on enabling our students to pursue and achieve academic excellence through a classical model, while immersing them in an authentically Catholic environment in which they will be exposed to the goodness, the truth, and the beauty of God. Successful educators at our school will not only be those who can employ the classical approach well and encourage each child to achieve their full God-given potential, but who are themselves living witnesses of their Catholic faith who desire to hand down to our students the faith which they have received.

Interested candidates should learn more about our unique school by visiting www.stmss.org

Please complete an application with the Archdiocese of Seattle and send resume to Kathryn Palmquist-Keck, principal@stmss.org

PARISH EVENTS & NEWS

Fourth Sunday of Easter - April 21, 2024 World Day of Prayer for Vocations

“There is no salvation through anyone else.”
Let us pray for those who are called to follow the Lord as a priest or religious brother or sister and that they may generously say YES. If you feel that God may be asking your child to consider the priesthood or consecrated life, reach out to your priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

Pray for Vocations with St. John Vianney

These families will be praying for vocations with St. John Vianney in the coming weeks:

April 22 Hannon Family

April 29 Collaku Family

Sign up to pray with St. John Vianney for vocations. May through August is wide open for praying families. Call 206-364-1633 to sign up for a week.

Morning Prayer

On Monday, April 22nd, daily Mass will not be offered, so you are invited to join the school community for Morning Prayer at 9:30 am. Copies of the morning prayer will be available to all who participate.

St. Vincent de Paul Collection Sunday: Next Sunday (April 27 & 28) St. Vincent de Paul will have bins outside the gym to collect much needed items for the pantry: rice, canned fruits and vegetables, hygiene items, tuna, peanut butter, and meals in a can.

Thank you in advance for your help.

We couldn't do what we do without the generosity of our parishioners.

Rachel's Corner Hope & Healing After Abortion

“Truly, the Lord is waiting to be gracious to you, truly, he shall rise to show you mercy; For the Lord is a God of justice: happy are all who wait for him!” Isaiah 30:18

How amazing it is to know that Our Lord is waiting to fill us with mercy and His love, when we at times can feel so far away from deserving that embrace. If you or someone you loves carries the burden of a past abortion, prayerfully consider reaching out to the Project Rachel™ ministry to begin healing.

St. Mark Young Adults Present

Our Second Annual

.pptx party

Friday, April 26

Sullivan Hall

6:30 pm

What is a "PowerPoint Party"?

A chance to make a presentation on any topic you want, no matter how silly. Participants pick a topic and inform (or persuade) the audience about it in 10 minutes or less. From old TV shows, to philosophy, to Internet legends, anything is welcome!

Do I HAVE to give a presentation?

No presentation required to attend!
Enjoy an entertaining evening with drinks and snacks, and get to know your fellow young adults (and their odd interests)!

Send your questions (and .pptx files) to:
stmark.youngadulthevents@gmail.com

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth;
by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

Cf. Ps 33 (32): 5-6

When we reflect on the imagery of the good shepherd, we often - rightly! - focus on the implication that we are the Lord's sheep. Treasured by God, He reassures us that even if it means leaving the ninety-nine, He will not allow the one to be abandoned or forgotten. He knows us and loves us dearly, praise God!

What catches my eye - and, if I'm brutally frank, convicts my heart - is the second half of Jesus' statement: "I know mine and mine know me". While there is no doubt that we are the Lord's sheep, I can't deny that I do not always acknowledge Him as my shepherd - and at times, I don't know Him... at least, not as intimately as I ought.

The kind of knowing that I think Jesus is highlighting is not simply an intellectual knowledge, but of relationship. Study of Christ is of course all well and good, but that can't be the basis of true friendship. Memorizing my family tree might give me insights into history, but it is in the encounter with my grandparents and aunts & uncles where I begin to really know them.

From that vantage point - and with gentle but frank honesty - we do well to ask: how well do we know Jesus? May we take the opportunities we have - especially in prayer - to encounter and engage with Him, that we truly know Him.

This Thursday, April 25 is the feast of Saint Mark. Author of the Gospel of Mark and patron of our parish, he is depicted with a lion because of how his gospel begins: the message of John the Baptist ringing out in the wilderness like a lion.

There is a time for meekness, as Jesus was during His Passion, and a time for boldness, as His Apostles were after His resurrection, ascension, and His promised sending of the Holy Spirit. May we joyfully & faithfully proclaim the Gospel in all we do.

This Sunday and last, we celebrated a total of four folks receiving baptism and/or confirmation at Saint Mark parish - these were students from our adult faith formation program who couldn't celebrate at the Easter vigil, so we scheduled their reception of the sacraments later. Please join me in congratulating both our new Catholics and those Catholics who received the sacrament of confirmation.

We are excited to have all of our (former) students fully initiated into the Catholic Church, and we look forward to seeing how the work of the Lord unfolds in their lives!
