*To the Parishioners of
St. Mark Parish, Shoreline
St. Matthew Parish, Seattle*

Dear Friends,

I am happy to greet all of you in the name of the Risen Lord Jesus!

As archbishop, I have the important responsibility and honor of providing you with ongoing pastoral care and sacramental ministry in your parish community.

Today, I write to inform you that your parish will be entering a time of transition in pastoral leadership beginning July 1, 2024. I am pleased to announce that, after consultation with the Priest Personnel Board, I have appointed Father Cody Ross as your pastor and Father Anthony Davis as your parochial vicar. Father Ross is currently the pastor of Sacred Heart Parish in Bellingham and the chaplain for the Western Washington University Newman Center, and Father Davis is the pastor of St. Barbara Parish in Black Diamond.

These are wonderful priests who will diligently and faithfully serve you and your parish family. Be assured that they will receive all the necessary support and assistance from the Archdiocese of Seattle to ensure quality pastoral care for your parish family.

At the same time, I want to personally thank Father Jacob Maurer and Father Khanh Nguyen for their wonderful service and leadership these last five and eight years, respectively. I ask you to please keep them in your prayers as they move forward in responding to God's call in their new assignments. Father Maurer will be pastor of Queen of Angels Parish in Port Angeles, St. Anne Parish in Forks, St. Joseph Parish in Sequim, St. Mary, Star of the Sea Parish in Port Townsend and St. Thomas Mission in Clallam Bay. Father Nguyen will be pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish and St. Bernadette Parish, both in Seattle, and St. Francis of Assisi Parish in Burien.

Times of transition can be challenging, especially as we prepare to say goodbye to a familiar presence and welcome new pastoral leaders. However, if embraced in an open and positive way, this can be a time of blessing for the entire parish and the Catholic Church of Western Washington. I am confident that will be the case as you welcome Father Ross and Father Davis to your parish family. As always, I remain,

In The Heart of Christ,

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Dear friends,

As you just heard from Archbishop Etienne, today marks a milestone in the implementation of Partners in the Gospel. Similar letters are being read across the archdiocese as new priest assignments are made public. For our part, we look forward to welcoming Father Ross & Father Davis as pastor & vicar of this parish family.

Just before Holy Week I had the opportunity to speak with both Father Ross and Father Davis, who are both looking forward to ministry here in parish family 12. I am excited for you to meet them and to get to know them. What I know of them, I am happy to share with you here. As you heard, Father Ross is currently pastor at Sacred Heart in Bellingham. A relatively young man (my age, so I'm biased), he was ordained a priest in 2016 for the archdiocese - our parish family will be his second pastorship. You can read a bit about him in the Northwest Catholic write-up from his ordination. Father Davis is currently pastor at Saint Barbara in Black Diamond. Originally ordained for the Archdiocese of Cape Coast in Ghana (Africa) in 1985, he has served in our archdiocese since 2008. You can read his reflections in his current parish bulletins online. Those of you hearing this at Mass or reading in the bulletin can visit our online bulletin for links.

I know that everyone will be eagerly learning about our parish family priests over the coming hours & days, but let us be sure to focus foremost on what is most important: entrusting ourselves and our communities to the will & care of Jesus. Let us lay our hopes & anxieties, sorrows & joys at the altar of sacrifice – especially at Mass together.

Please also pray for me as I prepare for my new role as pastor of the five communities in Jefferson county and Clallum Bay. Though I am not with you this weekend, know that you have been in my prayers this entire last week and will be throughout the days to come. Together in the Lord, let us look forward in anticipation of all that He has in store for us, confident that He wills all good things.

yours in Christ,

Father Jacob Maurer
