St. Mark Catholic Classical School is looking for an Extended Care Director/Preschool Teacher, Part-time Music teacher K – 8, and a Seventh/Eighth Grade teacher for the 2024-2025 school year.

At St. Mark Catholic Classical School, our educational approach is centered on enabling our students to pursue and achieve academic excellence through a classical model, while immersing them in an authentically Catholic environment in which they will be exposed to the goodness, the truth, and the beauty of God. Successful educators at our school will not only be those who can employ the classical approach well and encourage each child to achieve their full God-given potential, but who are themselves living witnesses of their Catholic faith who desire to hand down to our students the faith which they have received.

Interested candidates should learn more about our unique school by visiting www.stmss.org. Please complete an application with the Archdiocese of Seattle and send resume to Kathryn Palmquist-Keck, principal@stmss.org

Rachel's Corner Hope & Healing After Abortion
"For I am the Lord, your God, who grasps your right hand; It is I who say to you, do not fear, I will help you." Isaiah 41:13

Fear can be the greatest obstacle to your healing. He is a God of mercy, compassion, and love. Allow Him to hold your hand and bring you back into His embrace. Like a good Father, He yearns to help you with every step.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Proclaim a joyful sound and let it be heard; proclaim to the ends of the earth:
The Lord has freed his people, alleluia.

Cf. Is 48: 20

While I travelled to the Olympic Peninsula this week (and preparing to do so once again this week!), I had plenty of time to listen to one of my favorite podcasts, Restore the Glory. The episode that has been taking up a good amount of my prayer time lately is episode 87 - in which they spent time with Dr. Karl Lehman talking about his 'Immanuel Approach' to encounter with Jesus.

Their reflections resonated with me again when considering today's readings - particularly the first reading and the Gospel. First there is the reminder of our common humanity - emphasizing both our shared humble state and God's impartiality. Secondly, there is Jesus' reminder that the greatest commandment is love of God and each other.

Dr. Lehman's 'Immanuel Approach' is one of resting in past experiences of love, inviting Jesus to enter into those experiences, asking Him to share of Himself there, equipping us to likewise love others.

I have been struck by the graces I receive when I first start my day by dwelling on the love & care I have been given and inviting the Lord to renew His love & care for me. May we together explore how God has loved each of us, that we may fulfill His command to do likewise.

Throughout this last week, we have spent time in the various Gospel readings meditating on loving as Jesus loves - and that that is only truly possible by being branches that remain close to Him, the true vine.

As Catholics, closeness to Christ starts with five precepts: Mass on Sundays & holy days, yearly confession, yearly reception of the Eucharist, observing the days of fasting & abstinence, and helping provide for the needs of the Church. (CCC 2041-2043) These are a useful starting place to draw near to Him!

This Friday we celebrate the memorial of Saint Damien de Veuster, more commonly called Saint Damien of Molokai.

Saint Damien's story is one of extraordinary pastoral care. Born in Belgium, he became a priest in the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. When his brother - also a priest in the congregation - couldn't go to the Hawaiian Islands to serve, Damien volunteered. Nearly ten years later, he volunteered again - to serve at the leper colony on Moloka'i. He spent the remainder of his life there, sharing in the life, suffering, and death of those whom he served. Saint Damien, pray for us!
