This is Vocation Awareness Week and the 4th graders wrote some personal prayers:

Lord Jesus, help me answer the vocation you call me to. If the vocation is to marriage, help me stay loyal to my family. If the vocation you call me to is to be a priest, help me continue to spread the Word of the Lord. Thank you for all the wondrous things you do for me, Lord. Amen. ~Felix, 4th grade

Jesus, let me hear your call to pick my vocation. Thank you. Jesus, I love you. ~Yoel, 4th grade

Jesus, help me to hear your call and to succeed in whatever vocation you choose for me. Lord, I love you, and I praise you, now and forever. Amen. ~Elidya, 4th grade

Lord, help me to follow where you tell me to go. Whether you call me to be married, single, or a religious sister, Lord, help me follow your call. Lord. I cannot express how much I love you. I love you so much, I will do anything for you. ~Brianna, 4th grade

God, help me find my vocation. If my vocation is marriage or religious sister, help me hear your call. Amen. ~Helena, 4th grade

The school is in need of a person who is available to work on Tuesdays from 2:30 pm – 6:00 pm with the Extended Care program. This is a paid position.

Church Sound System Project Update

The church sound system upgrade will take place this week! Morgan Sound will begin installing the new equipment in the church after morning Mass on Monday, November 11th. The equipment installation is on schedule to be completed by Friday, November 15th.

That means we won't have speakers & microphones working for Wednesday, November 13th Mass at 6:00pm or at Thursday, November 14th 9:00am Mass.

So, if you will be attending either of these Masses (or both!), please consider sitting close to the front so Father can conserve his voice!

Looking for daily Mass on a Tuesday morning?
St. Matthew parish celebrates daily Mass on Tuesday mornings at 8:45am

A detailed illustration of the Nativity scene. The Virgin Mary is seated on the right, holding the infant Jesus. Three Magi are present: one kneels in adoration, another offers a gift, and a third stands. Joseph stands behind Mary. A star in the sky shines a beam of light on the infant. A camel and an ox are visible in the background. The scene is framed by a decorative border.

An Advent Reflection with Father Justin Ryan
Director of Vocations

St. Mark Parish

Presentation w/ discussion

Light refreshments available

Father Justin Ryan is a priest in the Archdiocese of Seattle. After ordination in 2018, he served as parochial vicar at St. Charles Borromeo in Tacoma and as Associate Director of Vocations. In July 2021 he was appointed Director of Vocations. He is currently at St. Benedicts in North Seattle.

Born and raised in the Archdiocese, Fr. Ryan grew up attending St. Brendan's Catholic School and Parish in Bothell where he received all his sacraments. He then graduated from Archbishop Murphy High School and received an Accounting degree from Gonzaga University. The journey toward priesthood began in his parish and school life, where certain teachers and priests accompanied him through the twists and turns of discernment.

After working in commercial real estate appraisal in Spokane, Fr. Ryan embraced the call to priesthood after years of discerning and entered seminary in 2013. Upon completing pre-theology studies at Mount Angel Seminary, Fr. Ryan received a Baccalaureate in Sacred Theology (S.T.B.) from the University of St. Mary's of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary in 2018 and is pursuing a Licentiate with a focus in Spiritual Theology also from USML. This focus on spiritual theology stems from the desire to help people recognize and articulate the many encounters they are having with God. Serving as vocation director, Fr. Ryan has a passion for helping facilitate a "culture of vocations" within parishes in our Archdiocese.

This includes preaching on vocations and celebrating Holy Hours for vocations, giving talks for youth groups and at young adult events, while also coordinating with pastors and lay ecclesial ministers to encourage young people to embrace their call from the Lord.
