Save the date for the 2025 celebration of the 175th anniversary of the Archdiocese of Seattle at St. James Cathedral in Seattle on Saturday, May 31st. The celebration will include 11:00am Mass at St. James Cathedral, Seattle, with Archbishop Etienne, and a celebration to follow.

As part of the celebration, the archdiocese is inviting the faithful to pray for the future of the Catholic Church in Western Washington with special prayer cards (available in the narthex.)

Watch this inspirational new video, created especially for the Archdiocese of Seattle's 175th anniversary, which covers the history of the archdiocese, from its founding in 1850 to present day. This video features the milestones, visionary leadership, change and resilience that are part of our archdiocese's great legacy of faith: <https://vimeo.com/1050898649>

The poster features a light green background adorned with various watercolor-style flowers, including pink, white, and yellow blossoms with green leaves. A central dark green square with a white border contains the main event details. Below this, a yellow banner highlights the date. The event details for two age groups are listed in a white box, and the location is at the bottom.
